

Thank you for supporting R.V in your community and for leading the essential conversation about protecting women's reproductive rights. We hope this film is a valuable tool in inspiring your organization members to take action.

Below, please find a description of R.V, suggested talking points around the film, discussion questions, and calls to action after the screening.

Feel free to email thervshortfilm@gmail.com with any questions.

ABOUT THE FILM

Stripped of her rights, a woman's life changes when she ventures with her husband to remedy an impossible situation.

R.V is a confronting narrative short film that follows the emotional journey of a woman as she undergoes an abortion procedure in very unsafe conditions.

RIGHT NOW, state-by-state, women's rights are steadily being chipped away.

We CANNOT go back to the days of coat hangers and back-alley abortions. THIS FILM IS WHAT IT LOOKS & FEELS LIKE WHEN WOMEN HAVE NO CHOICE.

RECOMMENDED TALKING POINTS

Right to choose
Access to safe care
State Law vs Federal Law
Religion in America
Income inequality
Anti-Abortion Policy
Roe Vs Wade
Human Rights

- Since Roe v. Wade (1973) there have been 1142 abortion restrictions added by states.
- As of 2017, 7 states had only one facility providing abortions: Kentucky, Mississippi, West Virginia, Missouri, Wyoming, South Dakota, & North Dakota
- In 2018 nearly 90% of counties in the U.S do not have a clinic providing abortions.

RECOMMENDED QUESTIONS

1. How does access to safe care affect local economics?
2. Can Roe vs Wade realistically be overturned?
3. If Roe vs Wade is overturned, what are the actual repercussions?
4. What measures can you take to ensure women have access to safe care on a local level?
5. How do you discuss reproductive rights with friends/family members who's point-of-view is rooted in their interpretation of the Bible?

After watching R.V please encourage friends and colleagues to visit www.rvshortfilm.org to find information on screenings around the US and to obtain easily shareable social media links.